Monthly Newsletter - August 2011

From RG & Liz Gall: VIRGINIA ZOO

Seniors age 62 and over will receive FREE admission to the Virginia Zoo on Wednesdays through the months of August and September. "Seniors are the foundation of the community," said Greg Bockheim, Zoo executive director. "The Virginia Zoo is more than 100 years old and we recognize that much of our success and growth has been due to the support of generations who have visited the Zoo, first as children, then as parents and now as grandparents or even great grandparents! This offer is our way of saying thank you."

To receive free admission, seniors need only to bring a valid ID as proof of their age. Free admission applies only to individuals 62 and over. All other guests will be subject to the regular admission rates. Free senior admission will be valid on Wednesdays only from Aug. 3 through Sept. 28, 2011. For more information, call (757) 441-2374.
