SENIOR ADULT MINISTRY NEWS!

The PrimeTimers meet about nine times a year. We folks, age 55 or better, gather for fellowship and to support an organization or a charity. Some of which are: Veterans Administration, Our House, Mercy Ship, Food Closet, Elementary schools, Cody Childers Memorial Fund, Afghanistan orphanage, Crisis Pregnancy Center, and many more.

We celebrate birthdays, anniversaries; ensure that those who cannot attend due to illness are in our prayers. Occasionally there is a door prize. We have lunch and discussions. Some times we have a guest speaker.

The Senior Adult Ministry is not limited to PrimeTimers, it is for all seniors.

As you may be aware, some years ago, seniors of Centerville Baptist took trips. For the last few months, the PrimeTimers have been discussing --- Get Out and Go! In February we had a guest speaker from Fun Tours. There are religious themed tours and well as nature/natural tours. For example: in April, there is an "On a Hill Far Away, an Easter Musical," and in August, there is a Tangier Island cruise. Most one day tours cost around $85.00.

Want to take a tour? Keep an eye out in Sunday's Bulletin for dates and types of tours and to sign up. Some of us have to budget. So, maybe we could divide the cost up into thirds. Something like $25.00 or $30.00 each month. You are our Brothers and Sisters. Let's share these events together. If money is tight, let the Church know, we will find a way for you to go.

Don't forget to check out the items on the Senior Adult Ministry bulletin board located in the hall adjacent to the choir room and the pastor's office.
